2011 Game Notes

Saturday, Oct. 22

Maryland at Florida State

(2-4, 1-2 ACC)

(3-3, 1-2 ACC)

Kickoff: 3:36 p.m. EDT Location: Tallahassee, Fla. Stadium: Bobby Bowden Field at Doak Campbell Stadium (82,300)

FIRST-AND-10...

- The Terps will look to bounce back from another difficult loss after falling to then No. 8 Clemson, 56-45, Saturday. One week after rallying from an 18-point deficit and having the ball late with a chance to take the lead in a 21-16 loss at No. 13 Georgia Tech, Maryland surrendered an 18 point second-half advantage to the Tigers. However, the Terps regained their lead midway through the fourth quarter (45-42) before a pair of late Clemson TDs sealed the win.

- Following their third defeat of the season to a top 20 team, Maryland will travel to Tallahassee, Fla., Saturday to face the Seminoles who snapped a three-game losing skid with a 41-16 win over Duke last weekend. Maryland and FSU are tied for third in the ACC Atlantic Division race. Saturday's game will be shown regionally on ABC (and on ESPN2 in other parts of nation) and broadcast on the Terrapin Sports Radio Network.

- Offensively, the Terps have become a more run-oriented unit with quarterback C.J. Brown and tailback Davin Meggett providing most of the punch. Brown, who made his first-career start vs. Clemson, has posted back-to-back 100-yard rushing games, including a school record (for a QB) 162 vs. Clemson. He also tossed a career-high three TDs vs. the Tigers. Maryland has averaged 245.0 rushing yards over the last three games, including a season-high 291 vs. Clemson, and now ranks fifth in the ACC (38th in the FBS) in that category. Meggett, a Doak Walker Award, ranks seventh in the ACC in rushing (80.3 ypg). Junior Kevin Dorsey leads the receiving corps (team-high 29 catches) and ranks 10th in the ACC in receptions (4.8 per game). Matt Furstenburg is manning the tight-end position for the second-straight season. The sure-handed junior already has 21 catches and posted a career-best 104 receiving yards vs. Clemson. He ranks second in the ACC among tight ends in both receptions (3.5 pg) and receiving yards (42.7 pg). Junior wide receiver Kerry Boykins had career highs with eight receptions for 76 yards vs. Temple (9/24) and ranks third on the team in catches (19). The offensive line, which lost its leader in left guard Andrew Gonnella (season-ending knee injury), has not yielded a sack in three games and ranks tied for 32nd in the FBS (1.3 pg) in that category.

- The defense has been in a state of transition due to a number of injuries which has seven potential starters on the sideline. Senior LB Kenny Tate and junior DL Joe Vellano, two of four team captains, highlight a defense which has forced 15 turnovers (tied for 23rd in the FBS), with three being returned for touchdowns. Tate, a 2010 first team All-ACC pick, has missed the last two games due to injury, but Vellano has been at his best in that span, posting 31 tackles, including a career-high 20 vs. Georgia Tech. Vellano also has two fumble recoveries on the season (30-yard return for TD vs. Miami, 9/5) and leads the FBS in tackles by a lineman (8.2 pg). Junior Demetrius Hartsfield, who moved from Will LB to the Mike position in the off-season, ranks fourth in the ACC in tackles (10.2), but he was out of action against Clemson, as was fellow starting linebacker Darin Drakeford, who has missed the last three. The Terps started five freshmen defenders vs. Clemson (most in the FBS in 2011), including the entire linebacking corps. Senior Cameron Chism, who has two interception returns for scores this year, and sophomore Dexter McDougale man the cornerback positions, but the secondary has been without safety Matt Robinson (gone for the year), the last three games. Junior Eric Franklin, who ranks 10th in the ACC in tackles (8.7 per game), has picked up the slack.

- Maryland possesses an explosive performer in senior Tony Logan, a 2010 first team All-ACC selection and record-setting punt returner. Logan is off to a slow start (averaging 6.6 yards per return), but he has two career punt returns for touchdowns and had a season-best 24-yarder vs. Clemson. Justus Pickett has handled the bulk of the kickoff return chores. The true freshman is averaging 16.8 yards on a team-high 15 kickoff returns. Nick Ferrara, who was a 2009 freshman All-American, is handling all three phases of the kicking game. The junior did an admirable job place-kicking, punting and kicking off for five games in 2009 when All-ACC performer Travis Baltz was unable to punt due to injury. Ferrara hit a career-best four field goals, including a 32-yard game winner, against Miami (9/5) and is fourth in the ACC in punting (42.7).

Release as of Oct. 20

QUICK HITTERS...

• QB C.J. Brown, who came on in relief vs. Georgia Tech (10/8) and started vs. Clemson (10/15), has rushed for more than 100 yards in each of the last two games. He's the only signal-caller in school history to post two or more 100-yard rushing games. His 162-yard effort vs. Clemson set a single-game school record for a quarterback and ranks eighth all-time in ACC history (see charts on page 6).

• The 101 combined points (56-45) in the Maryland-Clemson game are the most in an ACC game this year (previously: Georgia Tech 45, Virginia 35) and just five shy of the league record (106 by Clemson [82] and Wake Forest [24], Oct. 31, 1981).

• Matt Furstenburg had career highs in receiving yards (104) and touchdown catches (2) vs. Clemson (10/15). It marked the highest yardage total by a Maryland tight end since Vernon Davis had 108 yards (on eight catches) against NC State (11/26/05).

• Furstenburg was named to the John Mackey Award midseason watch list (one of 25 players) on Monday.

• Davin Meggett, who has two 100-yard rushing games this season, moved up on two Maryland career charts against Clemson (10/15). With 69 yards on the ground, Meggett moved from 12th to 11th on the Maryland career rushing list (1,997). He passed Josh Allen (2002-03, 2005-06) who had 1,958 in his career. Meggett also had one touchdown on the ground and moved into a tie for 14th on the Terrapin career rushing TD list (17).

• The Terps currently have three of the top 12 tacklers in the ACC: Demetrius Hartsfield (despite missing the Clemson game) is ranked fourth (10.2 per game), Eric Franklin is 10th (8.7) and Joe Vellano is 12th (8.2).

• With the loss of Gonnella (season-ending knee injury vs. Georgia Tech, 10/8), the Terps have just eight seniors (Davin Meggett, Maurice Hampton, Kenny Tate, Austin Walker, Cameron Chism, Trenton Hughes, Tony Logan and Quintin McCree) listed among the 44 players on the offensive and defensive two-deep. Logan (punt return) and Tim Downs (long snapper) are listed as starters on special teams.

• A sell-out crowd of 53,627 attended the West Virginia game (9/17), marking the largest turnout at Capital One Field at Byrd Stadium since Oct. 20, 2005, when 54,838 saw the Terps play Virginia Tech. The WVU crowd was the fifth-largest in Byrd Stadium history. Maryland also had a sellout vs. Miami (9/5) with 52,875 fans in attendance. So far this season, the Terps are averaging 45,828 fans through five home games, an increase of more than 6,000 from last year.

CLOSE CALLS...

In three of its four losses this season, Maryland has either held the lead or been in position to score the go-ahead touchdown in the final 5:00. All three of those losses came against top 20 teams (No. 18 West Virginia, No. 13 Georgia Tech and No. 8 Clemson).

TEAM CAPTAIN GOES DOWN...

The Terps lost one of their four team captains against Georgia Tech (10/8) when senior Andrew Gonnella suffered a season-ending knee injury. The senior, who had 26 career starts at left (18) and right guard (8), was carted off the field in the fourth quarter vs. Yellow Jackets. He will have surgery later in the year. Sophomore Pete White replaced Gonnella in that game and made his second career start vs. Clemson (10/15).

MASH UNIT...

The Terps have lost a number of key performers to injury so far this season with the defense getting hit especially hard. In all, seven potential defensive starters, including the entire linebacking unit, are currently on the sidelines.

MAKING ADJUSTMENTS...

The Terps have trotted out a different defensive starting lineup every game this season. With Alex Twine starting in place of Demetrius Hartsfield at Will linebacker vs. Clemson (10/15), the Terps used a sixth different lineup (see list on page 27).

LEADING THE NATION...

Junior Joe Vellano is averaging 8.2 tackles per game, a mark which is tops among defensive linemen in the FBS.

ONE FOR THE RECORD BOOKS...

Despite losing the Georgia Tech game, Joe Vellano had one of the most impressive defensive performances (20 tackles, including 14 solo stops and one TFL) for a Terp in quite some time. He is just the sixth player since the start of the 1990 season to post 20 or more tackles in a game and the only defensive lineman to reach that mark. In addition, he is one of just two players (E.J. Henderson - four times) to record 14 or more solo stops since the start of 1990. Vellano's 20 tackles rank fifth on the 2011 single-game FBS chart and are the most by a defensive lineman this year.

DID YOU KNOW?...

Since the start of the 2005 season (when the NCAA began compiling single-game tackles on its web site), Joe Vellano's 20 tackles vs. Georgia Tech (10/8) are the most by a defensive lineman in the FBS. In fact, just five linemen have more than 15 tackles in that six-plus year span: Jermaine Cunningham of Florida (17 vs. LSU, 10/6/07), Trevor Laws of Notre Dame (17 vs. Air Force, 11/10/07), Jeremiah Chapman of North Texas (16, vs. Western Kentucky, 11/24/07), Nate Collins of Virginia (16 vs. Georgia Tech, 10/24/09) and Abry Jones of Georgia (16 vs. Georgia Tech, 11/27/10). In addition, Vellano's 14 solo stops are the most by an FBS DL since Franklin Lloyd of Troy had 14 vs. Arkansas St. (11/1806).

D-LINE ADJUSTMENTS...

With Isaiah Ross, Justin Anderson and Andre Monroe on the shelf with injuries, the Terps have adjusted the rotation along the defensive line. Junior and team captain Joe Vellano and sophomore David Mackall have started all five games, but the other two spots have changed hands. After posting a career-high five stops as a replacement for Monroe vs. Temple, Maurice Hampton, the lone senior on the defensive line, earned the first start of his career at tackle against Towson (10/1). He also started vs. Georgia tech (10/8) and Clemson (10/15). The Terps also moved sophomore Cody Blue from the offensive to defensive line after the Temple game (9/24) to serve as the backup to end Keith Bowers who became the first Maryland true freshman defensive lineman to start since Jeremy Navarre in 2005. Bowers started in place of Ross vs. West Virginia (9/17) and has remained in the starting lineup the last four games.

FRESHMEN STARTERS...

So far this season, six freshmen (DL Keith Bowers, LB Lorne Goree, DL Andre Monroe, LB Mario Rowson, DB Titus Till and LB Alex Twine) have started for the Maryland defense, including four vs. Georgia Tech (10/8) and five vs. Clemson (10/15). That was the was the most freshmen to start for Maryland since Nov. 20, 1993, when five started in a 33-32 win over Wake Forest. That season the Terps had as many as six freshmen start in a game (on five occasions). In the game vs. the Demon Deacons, freshmen Sharrod Mack (DT), Johnnie Hicks (NG), Ratcliff Thomas (ILB), Andreal Johnson (RC) and Lamont Gore (SS) started on defense. The five freshmen starters last week is the most in the nation this season.

MOST FRESHMEN DEFENSIVE STARTERS IN A GAME (2011 IN FBS)

1.	Maryland	Clemson (10/15)	5
2.	Maryland	Georgia Tech (10/8)	4

21...Number of freshmen (13 redshirts; eight true) who have played this season.

NO LAUNDRY ON THE FIELD...

After setting a school record for most penalties (102) last season, Maryland has been one of the least flagged teams in the nation this season. The Terps rank third in the FBS in penalties per game (3.67) and sixth in yards penalized (34.3 per game). They had just two penalties for 11 yards against Towson (10/1) and one for 5 yards vs. Georgia Tech (10/8), the fewest flags the Terps have received in a contest since 2009 (one for 5 yards vs. Virginia Tech, 11/14).

YOUTH MOVEMENT...

Freshmen are listed 19 times on Maryland's two deep, which is tied for the most in the ACC. On the offensive and defensive two deep there are 15 freshmen listed (second in the conference behind Boston College, 16) including seven spots where a freshman is listed first (see page 10). Seven players on the two deep are true freshmen: WR Marcus Leak, DE Keith Bowers, FB Tyler Cierski, LB Cole Farrand, LB Alex Twine, RB Justus Pickett and S A.J. Hendy.

CASHING IN...

Maryland ranks tied for 11th in the FBS in turnover margin (+1.0 per game). The Terps forced four turnovers vs. Miami (9/5) and surrendered the ball just once to the Hurricanes. Maryland scored 16 points off the four Miami miscues, but did not allow the Hurricanes to score off its lone turnover. Despite turning the ball over three times vs. West Virginia (9/17), the Terps allowed just seven points off those miscues. Conversely, WVU turned the ball over three times and the Terps scored 10 points. On Sept. 24, Temple scored a touchdown off a Danny O'Brien interception. Maryland forced four Towson turnovers (two interceptions, two fumble recoveries) and scored 14 points off them. The Terrapins committed one but didn't surrender any points off the turnover. The Terps had two turnovers vs. Georgia Tech (10/8) and forced one Yellow Jackets' miscue. Neither team scored off the three turnovers. Against Clemson (10/15) the Terps won the turnover battle two to one and gained 14 points off turnovers while surrendering seven. Since the beginning of the 2010 season Maryland has scored 154 points off turnovers (44) while the opposition has been held to 41 points (22).

WHAT TO LOOK FOR VS. FLORIDA STATE...

- Davin Meggett, who ranks 11th in school history in career rushing yards (1,997), needs three more to become just the 11th back in school history to reach 2,000-yard plateau.
- Kenny Tate needs three tackles to reach 200 in his career.
- Nick Ferrara, who has 117 career points, needs four more to reach the top 10 on the Maryland all-time kick scoring chart (page 42 of the record book).
- Ferrara, who has 25 career field goals (11th in school history) needs two more to reach the all-time top 10. Dale Castro (27/1979-80) ranks 10th on the Maryland career chart.
- Tony Logan (768) needs 40 yards to crack the top 15 on the ACC's career punt return yards list.
- After piling up 537 rushing yards in the past two games, Maryland has moved up to 38th in the FBS in rushing offense (186.5 ypg). Florida State ranks second in the ACC and ninth nationally in rushing defense (86.8 ypg). The Seminoles lead the league and are 11th in the FBS in total defense (284.7 ypg).
- FSU QB C.J. Manuel ranks 26th in the nation in passing efficiency (160.8 rating), while Maryland has the 68th-ranked pass efficiency defense (129.9).
- The Seminoles rank 11th nationally in sacks (3.2 per game), but the Terps are tied for 32nd nationally in sacks allowed (1.3 pg) and have held the opposition without a sack in three contests.

SUDDEN CHANGE...

After going 41 games without scoring via a fumble or interception (Erin Henderson in 2006 vs. Virginia), Maryland has registered nine defensive touchdowns in the last 22 contests, including a pair vs. Miami (9/5). Joe Vellano returned a fumble 30 yards for a score and Cameron Chism had a 54-yard interception return for a TD. Chism also had a 46-yard interception return for a touchdown against Clemson (10/15). Late last season, Alex Wujciak had a 60-yard pick for a TD against Miami (11/6). Kenny Tate and Ryan Donohue both had interceptions for scores against Wake Forest (10/30/10). Demetrius Hartsfield's pick-six in the second quarter of the Morgan State game (9/11/10) was Maryland's first defensive score since Wujciak scored on a 70-yard interception return on 11/14/09 at NC State.

LOOKING AT THE O-LINE...

Maryland returned three starters on the offensive line from a season ago but had just one senior (Andrew Gonnella) at that position, that is until Gonnella, a co-captain, suffered a season-ending injury against Georgia Tech (10/8). That leaves just junior center Bennett Fulper and junior right tackle R.J. Dill as returning starters. Sophomores Max Garcia (left tackle) and Josh Cary (right guard) are starters for the first time in their careers and are joined by junior Pete White at left guard, who made his second career start against Clemson (10/15). The group has performed well so far, as Maryland currently ranks t-32nd in the nation in fewest sacks allowed (1.3 pg). The Terps didn't surrender a sack in the first two games, the first time Maryland accomplished that feat since 2000. The unit also helped Maryland rack up 499 yards (348 passing, 151 rushing) against Miami (9/5), the most by a Terrapin team since 2005, and 477 against West Virginia (9/17). The line gave up its first sacks of the season against Temple (9/24), when it surrendered three to a team that came into the game eighth nationally in that category, but responded by holding Towson (10/1) without a sack and giving up just one to Georgia Tech (10/8) and two to Clemson. The line also helped Maryland combine for 537 rushing yards over the last two games.

STREAKS AND TRENDS...

- Florida State has won the last four meetings with Maryland.
- Since the beginning of the 2010 season, Maryland is 10-3 when winning the turnover battle.
- CB Cameron Chism has started 29 consecutive games which leads the team. OT R.J. Dill has started 24 straight times which leads the offense.
- The Terps have recorded 32 picks over the last 22 games. They had at least one interception in 11 of 13 games last season and have recorded at least one in five of six games this year.
- The Terps turned the ball over just 14 times (10 interceptions/four fumbles) in 2010 and just four of those (two vs. Navy, 9/6; one vs. Miami, 11/6; one vs. FSU, 11/20) occurred in the red zone. Maryland was tied for fifth in the FBS in fewest turnovers. The Terps have nine turnovers so far this season.
- The Terrapins have averaged 34.9 points over their last 11 home games.
- QB Danny O'Brien had his string of 15 consecutive starts snapped vs. Clemson.

TERPS IN THE NFL

Heading into week seven of the NFL season, Maryland had 28 former players on NFL active rosters, which ranks second in the Atlantic Coast Conference and tied for 10th nationally. The list includes five rookies that played their final season with the Terps a year ago: linebacker Adrian Moten (Colts), running back Da'Rel Scott (Giants), wide receiver Torrey Smith (Ravens), wide receiver LaQuan Williams (Ravens) and tight end Will Yeatman (Dolphins). The positions most heavily represented are linebacker (6), offensive line (5) and defensive back (5).

MISCELLANEOUS NOTES...

- Starting safety Matt Robinson played in the first three games of the season, but is out of action the remainder of the year with a shoulder injury. The sophomore, who ranked seventh in the FBS in tackles (12.0 per game) when he was sidelined, played as a true freshman in 2010 and hopes to secure a redshirt season.
- Cameron Chism has two interception returns for touchdowns this season. The senior had a 46-yard return for a score against Clemson (10/15) and posted a 54-yard pick for a TD in the season opener vs. Miami. Chism is just the third player in school history to post two interception returns for a TD in the same season. Curome Cox (2002) and Bob Haley (1966) also had two in one season.
- Potential starters DL Justin Anderson, LB Darin

Drakeford, OL Justin Gilbert, DL Andre Monroe and DL Isaiah Ross, have also been out of action with injuries, though none are expected to miss the remainder of the season. Additionally, LB Kenny Tate missed the last two games and LB Demetrius Hartsfield was out against Clemson (10/15).

- The Terps surrendered just three points to Towson which marked the fewest by an opponent since Oct. 18, 2008 when Maryland shut out Wake Forest, 31-0.
- With his 5-yard TD run in the third quarter vs. Towson (10/1), Justus Pickett became the first true freshman running back to score a touchdown since Meggett in 2008. Pickett had season highs in carries (14) and yards (82). True freshman fullback Tyler Cierski also had a 5-yard TD reception.

Maryland had its streak of 139 games without a blocked punt (the longest in the nation) snapped vs. Temple (9/24) when Malcolm Eugene broke through the line to block a Nick Ferrara first-quarter punt. The last punt blocked by an opponent occurred vs. Florida State (11/13/99).

Despite the blocked punt, Ferrara had one of his best days punting vs. Temple. The junior punted six times for a career-best average of 47.2 yards per attempt (previous high 43.2 vs. Clemson, 10/3/09). He also put two punts inside the 10-yard line and had three over 50 yards, matching a career best.

Danny O'Brien became the 15th QB in school history to throw for more than 3,000 yards with his 289-yard effort vs. West Virginia (9/17). Despite just 15 starts, O'Brien ranks 12th in school history (3,368) in career passing yards (see chart on pg. 5).

Junior wideout Kevin Dorsey recorded 17 catches over the first two games of the season. Torrey Smith is the only other Terp in the last 16 years to post that many over a two-game span. Smith had a combined 21 receptions (seven vs. FSU, 11/20; 14 vs. NC State, 11/27) last season. Geroy Simon had 22 catches over the last two games of the 1995 season.

Over the first two games of the year, the Terps had at least five players catch four or more passes with Dorsey leading the way in each contest (eight vs. Miami, 9/5; career-high nine vs. West Virginia, 9/17). Last season, only once did the Terps (vs. NC State, 11/27) have four players catch at least four passes.

Just before the beginning of the season, head coach Randy Edsall announced that four former walk-ons (LS Tim Downs, WR Webb Dulin, DB Anthony Green and TE Ryan Schlothauer) were placed on scholarship.

WET BEHIND THE EARS...

With Tyrek Cheeseboro, A.J. Hendy and Cole Farrand all seeing their first-career action against Towson (10/1), the Terps have played eight true freshmen this season (also Keith Bowers, Tyler Cierski, Marcus Leak, Alex Twine and Justus Pickett). The Terps played as many as eight true freshmen (high

TERRAPIN SPORTS RADIO NETWORK

All of Maryland's football games will be broadcast live on the Terrapin Sports Radio Network, which boasts one of the strongest coverage areas in college sports. Terrapin Sports Marketing (TSM), a division of CBS Collegiate Sports Properties, manages the radio network. In its ninth year as the multi-media marketing rights partner for University of Maryland Athletics, Terrapin Sports Marketing has built a stronger network that provides coverage in Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Delaware, New Jersey and Washington, D.C.

WJZ 105.7 FM and WJZ AM 1300 in Baltimore serve as network's flagship stations, with 12 more affiliates across the state picking up the games. In July 2010, ESPN980 became the home for Terps football in Washington, D.C. All games will be "trimulcast" throughout the D.C. metropolitan area, suburban Maryland, and Northern Virginia on 980-AM (WTEM), 92.7FM (WWXT) and 94.3FM (WWXX).

Maryland's broadcasts will be accessible on the Internet via the Terps TV page on www.umterps.com.

of nine) during six of the last seven games in 2009. Prior to that, Maryland hadn't played as many as eight true freshmen since 2002 (also eight vs. UNC, 11/2).

DUAL-THREAT QB...

C.J. Brown earned his first career start against Clemson (10/15) and turned in a record-setting performance. The sophomore ran for 162 yards, the most ever by a Maryland quarterback, and also threw for 177 yards and three touchdowns on 17 of 35 passing. Brown earned his first significant action this season against Georgia Tech (10/8), entering in the second quarter and finishing the game. Against the Yellow Jackets, Brown ran for 124 yards, including a 77-yard TD. He already owns two of the top six rushing performances by a quarterback in school history and the 162-yard effort ranks sixth in the FBS this season (see below).

• Brown also saw limited action against Temple (9/24), entering the game for one series and leading Maryland on an eight-play, 80-yard scoring drive in which he went 4 of 4 for 42 yards through the air while running twice for 29 yards. Prior to that, Brown had played just one game in his career - against Morgan State on 9/11/10 when he suffered a season-ending injury on his first collegiate play.

EDSALL ERA BEGINS...

A new era in Maryland football officially got underway on Labor Day when the Terps played host to Miami. Head coach Randy Edsall, who transformed the University of Connecticut from a Division I-AA program (now FCS) to Division I-A (currently FBS), took over the reins of the Maryland program on Jan. 2. He was named the Terrapins' 34th head coach after directing the Huskies to two Big East Conference titles and five bowl games, including their first-ever BCS appearance (2011 Fiesta Bowl). Edsall is one of the few Maryland coaches to win their debut. Since Jim Tatum, who led the Terps to their lone national title in 1953, won his opener in 1947 only two other Terrapin coaches (of 11) - Tom Nugent (1959) and Ralph Friedgen (2001) - have been victorious in their debut.

TERPS UNVEIL NEW UNIFORMS...

On Aug. 22, Maryland Athletics unveiled its new football uniforms. Randy Edsall and players were on hand to showcase the new uniforms in a 30-minute fashion show at the Clarice Smith Center complete with a runway and a crowd of approximately 150 spectators. In all, 16 (of the 32) different jersey and helmet combinations were on display. The Terps have plenty of options to choose from this season with jerseys and pants in red, black, white and gold, along with two helmets. "I know this: the kids are very, very proud of those uniforms," said Edsall. "I told the captains, you're the guys that are going to have to decide what we're wearing because there are too many options for me. The good thing is I think it gives us tremendous opportunities. We might not wear the same uniform all year long. To incorporate all our colors in those uniforms - it's unprecedented really in college football." The uniforms, which prominently feature "Maryland" on the front, were designed by Under Armour. "What we want within these uniforms is performance and technology that the world has never seen," said UA founder/CEO and University of Maryland alumnus Kevin Plank. "We will have the lightest, the strongest, the most durable uniforms that any collegiate football team will have facing off in the 2011 football season. There is no greater thrill, privilege or honor than having Under Armour be a part of this program and all the Terrapin athletic program. Many, many good things are to come."

MARYLAND PRIDE UNIFORMS...

In his College Park debut vs. Miami (9/5), head coach Randy Edsall's Terrapins sported state-of-the-art 'Maryland Pride' uniforms inspired by characteristics specific to the state flag and the University of Maryland. From head-to-toe, the right and left sides of the uniforms coordinated with the two patterns found on the state flag, including a custom helmet. "It was about being prideful of your state, being prideful of the University and being prideful of all the people that have put on the Maryland football jersey before us," said Edsall of the uniforms designed by Under Armour. "It's great that people are talking about Maryland football." The Terps warmed up for the Miami game in one of their 32 uniform options before changing into the 'Maryland Pride' gear before kickoff. The 'Maryland Pride' outfit is considered a 'special occasion' uniform.

CAPTAIN'S CHOICE...

Maryland's four team captains - Andrew Gonnella, Davin Meggett, Kenny Tate and Joe Vellano - will make the team's uniform selection each week with head coach Randy Edsall announcing the choice Wednesday on his twitter account (@RandyEdsall).

EXPERIENCED BACK...

One of the most experienced players on the team, running back Davin Meggett has played in each of Maryland's 44 games since the start of his true freshman season in 2008. The senior, who is the feature back for the first time in his career, ranks 11th in school history with 1,997 rushing yards and could become just the 11th Maryland player to rush for 2,000 yards in a career with another three. Meggett has already recorded a pair of 100-yard games this season, rushing for a career-high 113 against West Virginia (9/17) and 102 against Towson (10/1). That marks the first time a Terrapin running back had two 100-yard efforts in a three-game span since Da'Rel Scott did it in back-to-back games at the beginning of the 2008 season. His 80.3 rushing yards per game ranks seventh in the ACC. Meggett is also a reliable option to catch the ball out of the backfield, with 11 receptions for 88 yards and a touchdown on the season. He is normally strong with the ball, though did have his first fumble in nearly two years vs. Towson (10/1). Meggett had a string of 230 consecutive carries with a fumble snapped vs. the Tigers. His last fumble occurred vs. Virginia in 2009.

REVAMPED DEFENSE...

The Maryland defense has been constantly changing this season, with the Terps putting out a different starting lineup in all six games. The linebacking corps already had to replace two key playmakers at the beginning of the year (linebackers Alex Wujciak and Adrian Moten) but expected to be stabilized with Kenny Tate's move to the Star position, two-year starter Demetrius Hartsfield's return to Mike and Darin Drakeford's emergence at Will. Due to injuries, however, those three have only started two games together (Miami, 9/5, and Temple, 9/24), and all three missed the Clemson game (10/15) with ailments. When they have been on the field each has performed well: Drakeford had a career-high 14 tackles (11 solo), including a sack and a forced fumble against Miami; Tate is averaging 8.8 tackles per game in four contests; and Hartsfield ranks fourth in the ACC with 10.2 stops per game. Without those three, the Terps have leaned heavily on freshmen, with Lorne Goree (Mike), Mario Rowson (Star) and Alex Twine (Will) all starting against Clemson. Additionally, starting safety Matt Robinson was lost for the season against Temple (9/24), defensive lineman Isaiah Ross was lost for the year in the season opener, and potential starter Justin Anderson (defensive line) has yet to play a game after suffering an injury in preseason camp.

HITTING THE GROUND RUNNING...

Maryland ranks second in the ACC in conference games only with 229.3 rushing yards per game. Over the past two games Maryland has had great success running the ball, piling up 246 yards against Georgia Tech (10/8) and 291 against Clemson (10/15), a total of 537 yards. Since 2000, the Terps have combined to rush for more than 500 yards in back-to-back conference games seven times.

500 COMBINED RUSHING YARDS, BACK-TO-BACK ACC GAMES (SINCE 2000)

1. 590: at North Carolina (388), vs. NC State (202), 2002
2. 576: vs. Duke (362), at Florida State (214), 2001
3. 540: at Wake Forest (297), vs. Virginia (243), 2001
4. 539: at Duke (151), at North Carolina (388), 2002
5. 537: at Georgia Tech (246), vs. Clemson (291), 2011
6. 530: vs. North Carolina (252), vs. Virginia (278), 2003
7. 529: at NC State (190), at Wake Forest (339), 2003

DEFENSE STEPS UP VS. TECH...

Maryland's defense performed well against the high powered triple-option attack of Georgia Tech (10/8), which came into the game ranked first in the nation in rushing and second in total offense. The Terps held the Yellow Jackets well below their season averages in points (21 - GT averaged 51.6 ppg); rushing (272 - GT averaged 378.2 pg); and total offense (386 - GT averaged 587 pg). Maryland held Tech scoreless over the last 27:51 of the game, the second-longest scoring drought for the Yellow Jackets this season (32:26 at NC State). Georgia Tech's 272 rushing yards and 386 total yards were season lows (previously 296 rushing vs. NC State; 413 total offense vs. NC State). Maryland was able to accomplish all this despite starting four freshmen on defense (DL Keith Bowers, DB Titus Till, LB Lorne Goree, LB Mario Rowson) and playing with five newcomers for almost the entire second half after Alex Twine replaced injured linebacker Demetrius Hartsfield.

STEADY SIGNAL-CALLER...

Danny O'Brien established himself as one of the top young quarterbacks in the nation last season, and has shown that same ability at times this season. The sophomore was splendid in the season-opening win over Miami, going 31 of 44 for 348 yards and a touchdown, the third 300-yard game of his career. He also ran for 37 yards in that game and his 385 yards of total offense were the third most in the FBS during the opening weekend. O'Brien followed that up with another big game against West Virginia (9/17), throwing for 289 yards and setting career highs in completions (34) and attempts (52), though he also threw three interceptions. In the next three games O'Brien went a combined 32 of 60 for 293 yards, two touchdowns and two interceptions. He was replaced by C.J. Brown in the second quarter of the Georgia Tech game (10/8) and had his streak of 15 straight starts snapped when Brown drew the start against Clemson (10/15). Still, O'Brien already ranks 12th in school history with 3,368 passing yards and t-6th with 26 touchdown passes.

DEFENSIVE "STAR"...

Senior Kenny Tate had a breakout season in 2010, earning first team All-ACC honors while racking up 100 tackles, four forced fumbles and three interceptions from his safety position. This year Tate, who coaches estimate was within seven yards of the line of scrimmage in 80 to 85 percent of plays last year, has moved to Star, a hybrid outside linebacker/safety position. Tate has stepped into a leadership role, serving as one of four team captains (also RB Davin Meggett, OL Andrew Gonnella and DL Joe Vellano), and he is on the watch lists for a number of national awards (see list on page 4). Tate ranks first on the team in career forced fumbles (five) and second in career tackles (197). He has continued to be a disruptive force, with two interceptions and a forced fumble, along with 1.5 tackles for loss on the year, though he has missed the last two games with an injury.

SPECIAL TEAMS STANDOUT...

Last season Tony Logan proved to be a game-changer for Maryland's special teams. An all-league pick, Logan led the ACC and ranked third nationally with an average of 18.1 yards per punt return, a mark that also ranks third on the ACC all-time single-season list. Logan made 31 returns for 560 yards in 2010, the second-highest yardage total in both school and ACC history, trailing only Steve Suter who had 771 yards in 2002. Though his chances have been limited in 2011 (nine returns for 59 yards), he continues to be dangerous when given an opportunity. He had three returns for 36 yards against Clemson (10/15) with a long return of 24 yards, and his career average of 12.59 yards per return ranks fourth in the FBS.

- Logan has two of the top three punt returns in school history, trailing only a 90-yard TD by Dick Nolan in 1953. He also had two games last season with more than 100 punt return yards (135 vs. FIU; 128 vs. Morgan State).

LONGEST PUNT RETURNS IN MD HISTORY

Rk.	Player	Yds	Opponent (Date)
1.	Dick Nolan	90	Clemson (10/3/53)
2.	Tony Logan	85	FIU (9/25/10)
3.	Tony Logan	84	Duke (10/2/10)
4.	Bob Smith	83	Penn State (10/3/73)
5.	Steve Suter	81	Akron (9/7/02)
6.	Steve Suter	80	WVU (10/5/02)

- In addition to returning punts and kicks, Logan has seen expanded time at wide receiver. The senior had just one career reception coming into the season but has nine catches over the last five games, including a career-high four against West Virginia (9/17). The former high school quarterback also had a 34-yard pass completion to Kevin Dorsey on a trick play against Georgia Tech (10/8).

FLORIDA STATE AT-A-GLANCE...

- Florida State comes into the game with a record of 3-3 (1-2 ACC) after a 41-16 win over Duke last week. Head Coach Jimbo Fisher is in his second year with Seminoles and has an overall record of 13-7.
- Junior quarterback E.J. Manuel returned from injury last week and sparked the Seminoles offense, throwing for 239 yards and two touchdowns. Manuel is second in the ACC in total offense (264.6 ypg) and fifth in passing (239 ypg). He is completing 65.8 percent of his passes this year.
- Manuel's backup, QB Clint Trickett, has thrown for seven touchdowns and completed 61.1 percent of his passes.
- Freshman wide receiver Rashad Greene leads the team and ranks fifth in the ACC in both receptions (5.2 pg) and receiving yards (91.4 pg). He is averaging 17.6 yards per catch.
- The Seminoles rank 11th nationally in total defense (284.67 ypg), ninth in rushing defense (86.83 ypg), and 30th in passing defense (197.93 ypg).
- Sophomore DE Bjoern Werner leads a talented Seminoles line that is atop the ACC in sacks (3.17 pg). Individually, Werner is third in the ACC with 5.0 sacks and tied for ninth in tackles for loss (1.08 pg).
- Special teams has been particularly good this season, led by senior punter Shawn Powell and junior kicker Dustin Hopkins. Powell leads the ACC in punting (44.5 ypp) and Hopkins has made 17 consecutive field goal attempts.

MARYLAND-FLORIDA STATE SERIES HISTORY...

- Florida State leads the all-time series 19-2, with both of the Maryland wins coming in the last seven meetings. The Seminoles defeated Maryland 30-16 last season in College Park.
- Removing Florida State's 37-3 win in 2008, six of the last seven games in the series have been decided by an average of 5.8 points.
- Florida State and Maryland met for the first time in 1966, and the Seminoles took the first 14 games in the series before Maryland finally broke through with a 20-17 win over the fifth-ranked Seminoles in 2004.
- Maryland took its second game in the series in 2006, winning 27-24 after Sam Hollenbach threw three touchdowns, including a pair to Darrius Heyward-Bey. Jeremy Navarre blocked a potential game-tying field goal toward the end of regulation.

CLOSING THEIR OPTIONS...

Maryland's defense performed well against the high powered triple-option attack of Georgia Tech (10/8). The Terps held the Yellow Jackets well below their season averages in points (21 - GT averaged 51.6 ppg); rushing (272 - GT averaged 378.2 pg); and total offense (386 - GT averaged 587 pg). Maryland held Tech scoreless over the last 27:51 of the game. Georgia Tech's 272 rushing yards and 386 total yards were season lows (previously 296 rushing vs. NC State; 413 total offense vs. NC State).

COACHING STAFF AT-A-GLANCE...

With Randy Edsall taking over the reins of the Maryland football program in January most of the staff has turned over. Tom Brattan (11th year as offensive line coach) and Lee Hull (fourth year as wide receivers coach) are the lone holdovers from the previous regime. Here are brief sketches of the seven first-year Maryland assistant coaches:

- Todd Bradford (defensive coordinator/secondary) has served as a coordinator on both sides of the ball, including the last three seasons as the DC and secondary coach at Southern Mississippi. The Golden Eagles' rushing defense ranked No. 13 (113.0 yards per game) in the FBS in 2010. They were also No. 14 in third-down conversions (34 percent) and No. 30 in turnovers gained. Bradford has also coached at Oklahoma State, BYU and Louisiana Tech. Bradford was hired by Edsall in January as the inside linebackers coach, but was elevated to defensive coordinator (as well as handling the secondary) when Don Brown left for UConn. He coached alongside Gary Crowton at BYU and Louisiana Tech.
- Gary Crowton (offensive coordinator/QBs) spent the last four seasons as offensive coordinator at LSU. Despite having three different starting quarterbacks in his tenure, the Tigers set a number of offensive records. The Tigers averaged over 30 points a game in his first two seasons, including a school-record 38.6 points a contest in 2007 when LSU won the national title. He has also been a head coach at BYU (2001-04) and Louisiana Tech (1996-98) and an offensive coordinator with the Chicago Bears (1999-00) and Oregon Ducks (2005-06). Crowton has coached seven quarterbacks who have gone on to be selected in the NFL Draft.
- Keith Dudzinski (inside linebackers) served as the defensive coordinator at UMass-Amherst the last seven years, including five under former Maryland assistant Don Brown, who was the Minutemen's head coach from 2004-08. During Dudzinski's time as defensive coordinator at UMass, the Minutemen maintained one of the top units in the nation. They finished among the top 20 in total defense three times (third in 2005; 20th in 2006; 13th in 2007). UMass was also first nationally in scoring defense in 2005 and fifth in 2006.
- John Dunn (tight ends/recruiting coordinator) spent the last three seasons as a graduate offensive assistant under Crowton with the LSU Tigers who went 11-2 in 2010. Dunn played quarterback and tight end for North Carolina from 2001-03 before spending four seasons on the Tar Heels staff.
- Greg Gattuso (defensive line) spent the last six seasons at Pittsburgh. The Panthers were one of the top sack producers in the nation the last two years.

Brandon Lindsey (10.0) and Jabaal Sherard (9.0) both ranked in the top 20 nationally in sacks during the 2010 regular season and Pittsburgh led the nation in that category in 2009 (3.6 per game). Gattuso, the former head coach at Duquesne (1992-04), initially joined the Pitt staff as tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator. In his first season, he helped the Panthers sign a recruiting class rated 10th in the nation by Scout.com. Gattuso was twice named the national Mid-Major I-AA Coach of the Year at Duquesne and was a seven-time MAAC Coach of the Year.

- Lyndon Johnson (special teams/outside linebackers) was on Edsall's staff at Connecticut, serving in a variety of roles. The UConn graduate coached tight ends and special teams his first three seasons (1999-01) before handling the outside linebackers his final nine years. He also coached special teams from 2005 through 2010. The Huskies were ninth in the FBS in kickoff returns in 2009 (25.8 yards per return) and Robert McClain ranked 18th nationally in punt returns (12.6 ypr). Johnson had the top kick returner in the nation this past season in Nick Williams who averaged 35.3 yards per attempt and had two TDs.
- Andre Powell (running backs) spent the last four seasons at Clemson where he coached running backs and coordinated the special teams his final three years. He tutored All-ACC running backs James Davis and C.J. Spiller, two of the top three rushers in Clemson history. Spiller finished his career No. 2 in NCAA FBS history in all-purpose running. The Tigers went to a bowl game every year Powell was at Clemson and finished in the top 25 of the final AP poll in 2007 and 2009. Maryland is Powell's fourth stop in the ACC, having also coached at Virginia (1996-00) and North Carolina (2001-06).

RANDY EDSALL

Head Coach

Syracuse '80 • First Year

With a reputation as a top-notch builder, leader and recruiter, Randy Edsall is in his first season as Maryland's head football coach.

Edsall, who is originally from nearby Glen Rock, Pa., spent the previous 12 seasons as head coach at the University of Connecticut where he took the program from FCS (formerly Division I-AA) status to five bowl games, including a BCS contest.

Edsall, who was hired in January as the 34th head coach in Maryland history, guided the Huskies to a pair of Big East Conference titles (2007, 2010) and postseason appearances in each of his final four years, including the 2011 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

The 2010 Big East Coach of the Year, who also had a successful run as an NFL assistant, led UConn to eight or more wins in each of the last four seasons as the Huskies successfully made the ascent to the FBS (formerly Division I-A). In fact, Connecticut was 33-19 over the last four seasons, including a pair of bowl wins.

UConn is also the first program to go from FBS newcomer to BCS bowl participant in only seven years.

During his time in Storrs, the program blossomed from a major college football newcomer upon his arrival to a team that made five bowl appearances in the past seven years. He left as the school's all-time leader in career wins (74) and most games coached (144). Edsall was also an impressive 65-46 (.586) in the school's first nine FBS seasons (since 2002).

The 2010 Huskies were typical of a hard working, blue-collar Edsall team. After starting out 3-4, including 0-2 in the league, UConn finished the year with five consecutive Big East wins to earn the conference championship and a spot in the BCS.

UConn's trip to the 2011 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl marked its fifth bowl trip since 2004. The Huskies defeated South Carolina in the 2009 Papajohns.com Bowl by a 20-7 score. Edsall guided Connecticut to a 38-20 win over Buffalo in the 2009 International Bowl, led the team to a victory in the 2004 Motor City Bowl and an appearance in the 2007 Meineke Car Care Bowl.

Edsall's Huskies won their final three regular season games in 2009 - including a historic double-overtime win over Notre Dame. UConn posted a 7-5 regular season record facing the 25th-toughest schedule in the country. In 2007, the Bryant and Munger Coach of the Year Award finalist helped guide UConn to a share of its first-ever Big East Championship in a season where the Huskies were picked to finish seventh in the league.

Edsall is a two-time recipient (2007, 2010) of the Bowl Championship Division Head Coach of the Year in New England by the Gridiron Club of Greater Boston.

Edsall has been a prominent voice in the college football community as he was a member of the American Football Coaches Association Board of Trustees and the NCAA Football Rules Committee.

UConn joined the Big East Conference in 2004, finishing just one win shy of tying for the league championship. The Huskies led the conference in total defense each of their first two years and again in 2008. During its debut season in 2004, UConn also led the Big East in total offense. UConn finished in the national top 20 for total offense (2003, 2004) and total defense (2002, 2005, 2008) in multiple seasons. The Huskies finished an impressive sixth in the country in total defense in 2008.

Under Edsall's guidance, the Huskies defeated members of the Atlantic Coast Conference, Big East, Big Ten, Big 12, Conference USA and South-eastern Conference during their Football Bowl Sub-division tenure.

In addition to the great success on the field, UConn has performed admirably in the classroom under Edsall. In five of the past seven years, including 2007, '08 and '09, UConn was recognized by the American Football Coaches Association for its high graduation rate.

UConn was the top team in the NCAA's Graduation Success Rate (GSR) in both October 2008 and '09 among league schools. The Huskies were third in the Big East in the 2010 GSR release and within four points of second.

In 2008, UConn had the highest GSR for African-American student-athletes among all state universities that participated in a bowl game following the 2008 season.

In 2009, the NCAA's Academic Progress Rate (APR) for the UConn football team was an impressive 951, which was third in the Big East Conference and just five points behind the second-place team. That mark also placed Connecticut ahead of the Bowl Subdivision average of 941 and among the top 30 percent of schools in the country.

In 2007, UConn was one of just six schools to play in a bowl game and also boast a GSR over 80-percent for both its Caucasian and African-American student-athletes. In 2003, UConn was the only public Division I-A school to graduate at least 90 percent of its football players and in 2005, UConn was one of only eight schools to both graduate 70 percent and win a bowl game.

Even in its first season at the Division I-A level, UConn was able to make its mark on the national scene.

Edsall guided the 2002 team to a 6-6 record in its first year with a full complement of 85 scholarships. UConn ended the 2002 season impressively, registering four straight wins to reach the .500 mark, including season-ending road wins at Navy and at bowl-bound Iowa State.

UConn's .500 season was its best record since the squad won 10 games in 1998. The Huskies' six wins were more than the Huskies posted in 2000 (three) and 2001 (two) combined. In 2002, the Huskies were the most improved Division I-A team in the country, according to preseason and postseason ratings by College Football News.

The excitement for Edsall and his team continued to swell in 2003 as the Huskies moved into their new home, Rentschler Field, and enjoyed the nation's largest attendance increase (+ 21,252 fans per game).

Finishing with a 9-3 record, many national media outlets, including Bristol-based ESPN, proclaimed that UConn should have received a bowl berth, a feat highly-uncommon for an independent team.

With their membership in the Big East for the 2004 season, another strong campaign by the Huskies resulted in a bowl berth. UConn went 8-4 against a challenging slate that fall as the program gained its highest-ever level of exposure. The Huskies capped their historic season with a resounding 39-10 win over Mid-American Conference Champion Toledo in the Motor City Bowl.

The 2007 season witnessed a new level of excitement in Storrs as the Huskies earned their first ever national rankings, peaking at No. 13 in the BCS standings on Nov. 5. UConn became just the second Big East team to ever go 7-0 at home and defeat three teams there which were ranked in the Top 10 at some point during the season. The Big East Champion Huskies finished that season at 9-4 with a berth in the Meineke Car Care Bowl, earning Edsall New England Division I Coach of the Year accolades.

Edsall was named the 27th head football coach at the University of Connecticut on December 21, 1998. He brought 19 years of coaching experience to the Husky program, including 15 seasons on the collegiate level and three in the NFL.

Edsall joined the Huskies after completing the 1998 season as the defensive coordinator at Georgia Tech, where he helped the 14th-ranked Yellow Jackets complete a 9-2 campaign.

Prior to joining the staff at Georgia Tech, Edsall spent three seasons as the secondary coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars. In his three seasons on Tom Coughlin's staff, Edsall was a part of one of the most successful expansion franchises in the history of the NFL. The Jaguars reached the playoffs twice, including a berth in the 1996 AFC Championship Game.

Edsall began his coaching career in 1980 at his alma mater, Syracuse University. A former quarterback for the Orangemen, Edsall started as a graduate assistant from 1980-82. In 1983, Orange head coach Dick MacPherson named Edsall to oversee the running backs.

Edsall coached running backs for three seasons (1983-84 and 1986) and oversaw the tight ends in 1985 before making the switch to the defensive side of the ball. He coached the Syracuse defensive backs from 1987-1990 and during that period the Orangemen were ranked among the Division I-A leaders in pass defense.

He remained in the Big East for the next three years as he moved on to become the defensive backs coach at Boston College. Edsall served under Coughlin who was hired as head coach prior to the 1991 season.

Gary Crowton, Edsall's current offensive coordinator, and Fran Foley, who serves as Maryland's director of football operations, were also on the staff during that time, a period which saw the Eagles reach a pair of bowl games.

Edsall was a three-year letterwinner in football, basketball and baseball at Susquehannock High School (Pa.). He was an all-state selection in all three sports in his senior season and was inducted into the York Area Sports Hall of Fame.

He went on to Syracuse, where he was a member of the football team and earned one varsity letter as a quarterback for the Orangemen. He was a member of the Syracuse squad that captured the 1979 Independence Bowl title under head coach Frank Maloney.

Edsall earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Syracuse in 1980 and added a master's degree from the Big East school in health and physical education in 1982.

Edsall was honored with the Leadership Award at the Martin Luther King, Jr., Holiday National Liberty Bell Ringing Celebration in Hartford, Conn., in January, 2010. He was honored this last fall by the UConn Alumni Association as an honorary alumnus of the school.

Edsall was an active member of the community and has supported a number of charitable events over the years.

He and his wife, Eileen, a former basketball and volleyball letterwinner at Syracuse, have a daughter, Alexi (21), and a son, Corey (18).

GAME1

Maryland 32, Miami 24

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Nick Ferrara kicked a 32-yard field goal to put Maryland ahead with 1:39 left, Danny O'Brien threw for 348 yards and a touchdown, and defensive back Cameron Chism played a part in two touchdowns as Maryland won its ACC opener, 32-24, over Miami before a sellout crowd.

The Terrapins emerged from the locker room with new white uniforms patterned after the state flag. They wore helmets spashed with red and white on the left side and black and yellow on the right, and the pattern continued to the shoulders.

Maryland amassed 311 yards and 19 first downs in the first half alone and finished with 499 yards, including 92 yards on 21 carries by Davin Meggett.

The seasaw contest came down to the closing minutes. Soon after O'Brien completed a 52-yard pass to Kevin Dorsey down the right sideline, Ferrara entered only one series after missing from 23 yards out. This one, however, was right down the middle, giving the Terrapins a 26-24 lead.

Chism then provided the clincher.

Miami was playing its initial game under Al Golden without eight suspended players.

Stephen Morris capably filled in for Harris, going 19 for 28 for 195 yards and running for a touchdown. But on a fourth-and-4 in the final minute, the sophomore threw an interception that Chism took 54 yards to put the game out of reach with 39 seconds remaining.

The Hurricanes took a 21-20 lead early in the third quarter on a 5-yard run by Morris. Maryland regained the lead when Ferrara kicked his third field goal to end a 14-play drive.

Morris then directed a 67-yard march that ended with a 30-yard field goal by Jake Wieclaw for a 24-23 lead with 4:01 remaining.

The Terrapins led 20-14 at halftime. After blowing a 10-0 advantage, Maryland moved back in front when Chism caused Mike James to fumble and defensive lineman Joe Vellano lumbered 30 yards for a score.

No. 18 West Virginia 37, Maryland 31

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Danny O'Brien completed 34 of 52 passes for 289 yards and a touchdown, but threw three interceptions in a 37-31 loss to 18th-ranked West Virginia before a sellout crowd.

The last turnover, with 1:13 remaining, came after Maryland reached the West Virginia 35 and ended a strong comeback bid that brought the Terrapins back from a 24-point deficit.

WVU's Geno Smith threw for a career-high 388 yards, and the Mountaineers needed every one of them to hold of the Terps.

One week earlier, West Virginia (3-0) trailed Norfolk State at halftime before pulling away. The Mountaineers addressed that deficiency and built a 27-10 lead at the break against the stunned Terrapins.

The margin swelled to 24 points before Maryland rallied, closing to 34-31 with 10:29 remaining.

Both teams used the no-huddle offense with uncanny efficiency. West Virginia averaged six yards per play and Maryland amassed 477 yards on a whopping 87 snaps.

Smith had 232 yards passing in the first half to help the Mountaineers take a 17-point lead. The junior then threw a 34-yard touchdown pass to Stedman Bailey on West Virginia's first possession of the third quarter to make it 34-10.

The Terrapins scored three straight touchdowns to cut the gap to 34-31, thrilling the sellout crowd of 53,627. But Maryland couldn't complete the comeback.

GAME3

Sept. 24, 2011

Temple 38, Maryland 7

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Bernard Pierce set a school record with five rushing touchdowns, and Temple built a 31-point half-time lead in a 38-7 win over Maryland.

Temple (3-1) defeated Maryland (1-2) for the first time. The Terrapins fell to 6-1 against the Owls.

Temple led 21-0 with just over 11 minutes elapsed, boosted the margin to 31-0 at halftime and played conservatively to the finish. It was 38-0 before the Terrapins got their only score, on a touchdown pass by backup quarterback C.J. Brown with 4:31 remaining.

Pierce ran 32 times for 149 yards, including 108 in the first half. He had touchdown runs of 1,9,4, 44 and 13 yards, giving him 12 TDs for the season.

Starting for the first time this season, Temple senior Chester Stewart completed all six of his passes in the first half and finished 9 for 9 for 140 yards. He also ran for 43 yards.

Danny O'Brien was 17-for-33 for 153 yards and an interception, and he also absorbed his first three sacks of the season. The running game produced only 45 yards, and the defense allowed scores on all five of Temple's first-half possessions.

The Terrapins had a tough day on special teams, too. Maryland had a punt blocked for the first time since 1999 and missed an opportunity to get a comeback going in the second quarter by roughing the kicker on a fourth-and-14 punt at the Temple 16.

Given a second chance, the Owls completed a 93-yard drive to increase its lead to 28-0.

After holding the Terrapins to one yard on three plays on the opening drive, the Owls' first offensive snap produced a 54-yard completion from Stewart to tight end Evan Rodriguez, setting up the first of Pierce's four first-half scores.

Following another three-and-out for Maryland, Stewart ran for 18 yards on a third-and-5 and connected with Rodriguez on passes of 18 and 18 yards before Pierce made it 14-0.

Temple again forced a punt, and Rod Streater blocked the kick to set up a touchdown. Maryland had gone 139 straight games without having a punt blocked.

Oct. 1, 2011

Maryland 28, Towson 3

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Danny O'Brien threw two second-half touchdowns and Maryland's defense forced four turnovers, all after halftime, helping the Terrapins pull away to a 28-3 win over in-state foe Towson.

O'Brien completed 14 of 21 passes for 123 yards. Davin Meggett added 102 rushing yards as Maryland finished with 335 total yards of offense, including a season-high 198 on the ground.

Towson came in leading all Football Championship Series teams in scoring defense, allowing an average of 10 points per game, but the Maryland (2-2) offense scored three second-half touchdowns.

The Tigers (3-1) had the ball for 21:30 of the game's first 30 minutes, keeping Maryland's offense off the field.

Maryland needed just 85 seconds to score against the Tigers when D.J. Adams ended a 65-yard drive with a 15-yard touchdown run. The score came one play after a roughing the passer penalty on an incompleteness allowed the Terps a first down rather than facing a fourth down at the 30.

D.J. Soven's 23-yard field goal at the end of a nine-minute possession in the second quarter by the Tigers made it 7-3 after they were stopped on a goal-line stand by the Terps.

The Tigers missed a 24-yard field goal try as the first half ended, rushing to get the kick off with no timeouts left and the clock ticking down.

Maryland extended its lead to 14-3 on its first possession of the second half, which followed an interception by Kenny Tate at the Towson 45. Maryland scored eight plays later with Justus Pickett going in from the 5. The true freshman had career highs in attempts (12) and rushing yards (82).

Following a Towson punt, Maryland drove 78 yards and scored on a 7-yard pass from O'Brien to Kenny Dorsey for a 21-3 advantage with 7:09 to play.

Another Towson fumble gave Maryland the ball at the Tigers 26, leading to a 5-yard pass from O'Brien to Tyler Cierski, the first touch of the freshman's career.

No.13 Georgia Tech 21, Maryland 16

ATLANTA - Sophomore quarterback C.J. Brown ran for a 77-yard touchdown early in the fourth quarter, sparking a Maryland rally that fell just short as No. 13 Georgia Tech held on for a 21-16 win over the Terrapins.

Georgia Tech led 21-3 before holding off the Terrapins' fourth-quarter comeback, as the Maryland defense held the Yellow Jackets well under their scoring and offensive averages for the season.

Georgia Tech (6-0 overall, 3-0 Atlantic Coast Conference) matched its wins total from 2010, when it finished 6-7. The Yellow Jackets averaged almost 52 points in their first five wins and began the day ranked first in the nation in rushing and second in scoring.

Following Brown's run to begin the rally, Davin Meggett, who had 86 yards rushing, scored from the 1 with 7:33 remaining to cut the lead to 21-16.

But Maryland was stopped on a fourth-and-8 play from its 46 on Brown's incomplete pass with 2:31 remaining, ending its comeback bid.

Brown was 4-of-17 passing for 36 yards and an interception. He had nine carries for 124 yards. O'Brien was replaced after completing only 1 of 6 passes for 17 yards and an interception.

Quarterback Tevin Washington, who ran for 120 yards and two touchdowns for Tech, had scoring runs of 7 yards in the first quarter and 3 yards in the third. Orwin Smith had a 10-yard scoring run in the second quarter.

Maryland's only points in the first three quarters were Nick Ferrara's 30-yard field goal at the end of a 14-play drive on the Terrapins' first possession.

Washington was Georgia Tech's leading rusher, but he struggled as a passer as he completed only 6 of 19 passes for 114 yards and an interception.

Coach Randy Edsall pulled O'Brien after the sophomore's second-quarter interception, his sixth of the year. Brown took over and remained in the game after he was picked off by Rod Sweeting in the end zone in the third quarter.

Georgia Tech led 14-3 at halftime but wasted two second-quarter chances to stretch the lead.

Maryland left guard Andrew Gonnella, one of four team captains, was taken off the field in an ambulance after suffering a season-ending knee injury.

No.8 Clemson 56, Maryland 45

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - C.J. Brown ran for 162 yards, a single-game record for a Maryland quarterback, scored one touchdown and passed for three, but it wasn't enough to prevent Maryland from losing to No. 8 Clemson, 56-45.

In addition to his rushing total, Brown completed 17 of 35 passes for 177 yards.

Tajh Boyd threw four touchdown passes and freshman Sammy Watkins scored three TDs for the Tigers (7-0, 4-0 ACC), who trailed 28-10 late in the first half and 35-17 in the third quarter. Boyd went 26 for 38 for 270 yards as the catalyst of an offense that amassed 576 yards.

Watkins scored on an 89-yard kickoff return that put Clemson up 49-45 with 7:24 left. Watkins' 345 all-purpose yards set a school record.

Andre Ellington rushed for a career-high 212 yards and two touchdowns for the Tigers, who have scored at least 35 points in all but one game this season.

After Brown threw a 32-yard TD pass to tight end Matt Furstenburg to put Maryland up 45-42, Watkins took off on his decisive kickoff return and Ellington clinched it with a 44-yard touchdown run with 3:55 to go.

Maryland took its second 18-point lead early in the third when Brown capped a 78-yard drive with a 22-yard pass to Furstenburg, who had a career-high 104 receiving yards.

Boyd responded with a 13-yard TD pass to Watkins to make it 35-24. After each team kicked a field goal, Boyd connected with Watkins for 51 yards, ran for 4 and threw a 15-yard touchdown pass to Watkins. The 2-point conversion got Clemson to 38-35 entering the fourth quarter.

The comeback became complete when Boyd threw a 12-yard touchdown pass to Jaron Brown with 11:26 left to end an 80-yard drive.

Maryland led 28-17 at halftime.
