Game 1
Aug. 25
Piscataway, N. J.

PISCATAWAY, N.J. - Sophomore back Carly Viher opened the 2000 season with a header into the upper left corner of the goal off a corner kick from sophomore Dana Jaryszyniec 5:17 into the season opener to give Maryland a 1-0 win at Yurcak Field. The win marked the fifth time in six years Maryland opened the season with a victory, four of which came by shutout.

"I feel really good about the victory," said coach Shannon Higgins-Cirovski. "This was a great starting point and building block for the season. We got some great performances from freshman Jen Bisceo, who had four shots all on goal and obviously Viher with the goal had a strong performance.

"We had a lot of opportunities in the first half and didn't capitalize. But it helps us to learn about ourselves, I really feel we connected overall, though."

The goal, which came on the Terps' first shot of the season, was the first of Viher's career and also represented her first career point.

Kim King hit the left post with a rifle shot with 29 minutes left in regulation, which could have given Maryland a two-goal lead.

Maryland senior keeper Riki-Ann Serrins made one save to earn her ninth career shutout, as she played all 90 minutes.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. -- The No. 23 Maryland women's soccer team stunned No. 4 Penn State for the biggest upset in the 14-year history of the program with a 3-1 win over the Nittany Lions at Ludwig Field. The Terps were previously 0-28-1 against teams ranked in the top five dating to 1987.

Junior Sara Gustafson had a career night as she recorded her first career hat trick. She scored her first two goals in the first 3:57 of the match to give Maryland a 2-0 lead. Gustafson sealed the win with her third goal with 2:57 left in regulation.

"I knew I could have a night like this against Penn State," said Gustafson, who transferred to Maryland from Indiana prior to the 1999 season. "This was the fifth time I've played Penn State and in all of the other four games -- three at Indiana and one in the NCAA's with Maryland last year -- our team lost by one goal. What I wanted more than anything was to beat Penn State. This was the game I was looking forward to the most and we got it done. It was awesome."

The previous highest ranked team Maryland defeated was then-No. 7 Duke on Oct. 1, 1995, with a 2-1 Terps' win. Maryland's only positive result in 29 games against top five teams came as the Terps tied then-No. 4 Connecticut, 2-2, on Oct. 11, 1998.

"This win really put us on the map," said head coach Shannon Higgins-Cirovski. "This was a huge win for everyone in our program. To beat a number-four ranked team will just give us a tremendous amount of confidence. We talked about making connexions and that is what we did tonight. This win really lets everyone know what type of team Maryland is."

In nets, Maryland senior keeper Riki-Ann Serrins equaled her career high with 13 saves, including nine in the second half, when the Penn State attack fired off 13 shots.

Gustafson gave Maryland a 1-0 lead just 1:35 into the match as she took a soft cross from sophomore Carly Viher and beat Penn State keeper Emily Oleksik in the lower right corner. Gustafson came back for her second goal just 2:22 later as she took a pass from Valerie Lawrence and beat Oleksik with a lob shot from about seven yards out.

Penn State's All-American Christie Welsh brought the Nittany Lions to within a goal with her first of the season from a low shot from about 15 yards out.

Serrins and Maryland's defense had a phenomenal game as they stopped the Nittany Lions continuously. Lawrence made a key defensive block seconds prior to halftime. Viher came up with a clutch defensive save off a Welsh shot in the 68th minute on a scramble in front of the goal which secured Maryland's lead.

Game 2
Aug. 29
College Park, Md.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. -- The No. 23 Maryland women's soccer team dropped a hard-fought 2-1 decision to No. 22 Duke in the ACC opener for both teams at Ludwig Field. Fresh off a stunning 3-1 upset of No. 4 Penn State, the Terps were aiming for a third straight win to open the 2000 season.

Duke (2-0, 1-0 ACC) opened the scoring as senior forward Sarah Pickens headed home a rebound to give the Blue Devils a 1-0 lead just 20:29 into the contest.

Maryland (2-1, 0-1 ACC) retaliated as sophomore forward Kim King beat Duke keeper Isis Dallis to be the game at one with 6:11 left in the first half.

But Duke responded just 2:02 later at the 40:51 mark as freshman forward Ali Kopman took a pass from Brigid Bowdell and beat Maryland keeper Riki-Ann Serrins for the decisive goal.

The teams played a scoreless second half as Maryland took six shots, but second-half Duke keeper Thora Helgadottir made three saves.

Overall, Duke outshot the Terps, 13-12. Serrins made four saves in the defeat as she saw her record fall to 2-1-0 in 2000.

Game 3
Sept. 1
College Park, Md.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. -- Playing with its highest ranking since 1997, the No. 9 Maryland women's soccer team defeated in-state rival Towson, 1-0, on at Ludwig Field. The win was Maryland's sixth consecutive non-conference-season victory dating back to last season.

The Terps improved to 3-1 in 2000, while Towson suffered it first defeat and also falls to 3-1.

Freshman midfielder Jen Bisceo scored the game's only goal -- her first as a collegian -- with 4:09 left in the first half. Bisceo broke a cross from sophomore defender Carly Viher (Mentor, Ohio) and used her left foot to beat Towson keeper Tina Steck to the lower left corner of the goal.

Maryland senior keeper Riki-Ann Serrins posted one save in the second half to record her second shutout of the season and 10th of her career at Maryland. Serrins is just two whitewashes shy of the Maryland career shutout record shared by Heather Rowe (1989-91) and Missy Price (1993-96).

Towson took the first two shots of the game, but Maryland dominated the total rest of the way, outshooting the Tigers, 19-4 in the game.

The game also marked the first between Maryland and Towson since 1992, when the Terps routed the Tigers, 12-0, Carlly Viher scored her first college goal at Rutgers. Jen Bisceo also scored her first college goal against Towson.

and the first for Towson coach Leslie Kerhin against her college team. Kerhin played at Maryland from 1992 through 1994 and still ranks fifth all-time in career assists.

Sept. 9
Richmond, Va.

Richmond, Va. - Richmond used a first half goal by sophomore midfielder Jenna Merriam at the 5:30 mark to stun No. 9 Maryland, 1-0, in women's soccer action at UR Soccer Complex.

On the game-winning strike, senior co-captain Nicole Froman played a throw-in to senior forward Brooke Sands, who flicked a ball to Merriam. She deposited the decisive goal just inside the far post to account for the match's only scoring. The goal was Merriam's first of the season, while both Sands and Froman delivered their first assist of the campaign.

Terp senior keeper Riki-Ann Serrins made six saves on 18 Spider shots. Richmond goal-keeper Kristin Samuel made four saves to earn her second shutout of the season.

Maryland's Jen Biscoe suffered a torn ACL in her right knee in the first half of the match and did not return.

Game 6

Sept. 12
College Park, Md.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Senior forward Julia Nelson scored her first career hat trick to lead No. 23 Maryland to a 3-0 win over local rival George Washington at Ludwig Field. The win was a well-rounded effort for the entire team as both the defense and offense clicked.

"Tonight was a solid win for us," said head coach Shannon Higgins-Cirovski, who coached George Washington from 1991-97. "Julie Nelson had a stellar performance. She came out with the vengeance that we needed tonight. She had a real fire in her and you could see that from the start."

Nelson got the Terps on the board at the 29:47 mark as she took a cross from Audra Poulin and blasted home a one-timer off a beautiful spin play. She then made the score 2-0 off another Poulin pass at 51:17. Poulin took a pass from fellow freshman Katie Ludwig and centered the ball to Nelson, who rifled the ball into the lower left side of the goal. For Ludwig, this was the first point of her career.

Exactly 10 minutes after her second goal, Nelson completed her first career hat trick as she scored on a penalty kick after Terri Greer was taken down in the box by a George Washington defender.

"We had to play well tonight to set the pace for the rest of the season," said Nelson, a senior captain. "I did the job tonight with three goals after not scoring in the first five games of the season."

Poulin had an exceptional night in her first start as she replaced fellow freshman and roommate Jen Biscoe.

Biscoe suffered a torn ACL in her right knee in the Terps' last game at Richmond and will be lost for the season. Poulin, the 1999 Washington Post Player of the Year posted her first two collegiate points and played solid midfield all night.

In net, senior Riki-Ann Serrins preserved her third shutout of the season, making two saves. Serrins now has 11 career shutouts, just one shy of the school record held by Heather Rowe (1988-91) and Mosy Price (1993-96).

Stamford, Calif. - Marcia Walls scored two goals as the No. 6 Stanford women's soccer team defeated No. 23 Maryland 3-0 to capture the Stanford Nike Invitational title at New Meloney Field. With the win, the Cardinal improved to 5-1-0, while Maryland fell to 4-4-0.

Marcie Ward gave Stanford the lead in the 10th minute when she scored on a breakaway set up by midfielder Kelsey Carlson.

Walls tallied the first of her two goals with a 09-seconds remaining in the first half. Christy LaPierre sent the ball down the left side before freshman Brittany Oliveria tracked it down in the corner and crossed it to the center. Walls was right there for the one-touch goal, giving the Cardinal a 2-0 lead at the half.

At the 56:01 mark, Ward fed Walls with a pass inside the box for Wallis' sixth goal of the season (third of the tournament).

A pair of Maryland freshmen, Katie Ludwig and Audra Poulin, were named to the all-tournament team.

College Park, Md.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. -- After butting out to a 2-0 lead in the first half, the Maryland women's soccer team lost a heart-breaking 3-2 battle to ACC rival No. 15 Virginia at Ludwig Field. The Cavaliers scored all three goals in the final 22 minutes of the match.

"We played very hard against a very good team," said Maryland head coach Shannon Higgins-Craskowski. "We played with a ton of guts and I'm proud of the performance. (Senior) Riki-Ann Serrins played out of her head and kept us in the game. She was amazing."

The Maryland (5-7-0, 0-4 ACC) offense was kick-started by a pair of midfielders, each of whom scored their first goals of the season in the first half. Junior Courtney Beine, who was reinserted into the starting lineup, tallied Maryland's first goal as she took a cross from Carly Vihler in the box and beat Virginia keeper Julie Harris to the lower left corner, 26:42 into the match.

Senior Terri Greer scored on a beautifully set screen in front of the Virginia net at the 31:21 mark to put the Terps up 2-0. Beine and Sara Gustafson were credited with assists on the play.

Virginia (7-5-0, 2-2 ACC) came out strong in the second half as Maryland stayed in front behind the sensational goalkeeping of Riki-Ann Serrins, who made several point blank stops. She finished with six saves in each half for 12 in the game, one shy of her career high.

The Cavaliers broke into the scoring column as Katie Tracy finished off a corner kick by Ashley Meeker on a scramble in the box with 21:59 left in regulation to bring Virginia within one. Then, just 1:43 later, Lori Lindsey scored on a free kick that was lobbed over a Maryland wall and Serrins to tie the game at the 69:44 mark.

Virginia took the lead for good as Darcy Boris's high lob shot deflected off of Serrins' hands into the goal with 8:15 left in regulation, giving the Cavs the 3-2 win.

Game 13
Oct. 11
College Park, Md.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. -- It was a record setting night for the Maryland women's soccer team as they romped over Howard, 9-0, at Ludwig Field. The nine goals, the Terps scored were their most in a single-game in eight seasons. Junior forward Sara Gustafson equaled the school record goals for a game in four, while sophomore midfielder Dana Jarzyniec set the school record for assists in a game with three. Gustafson equaled the mark set by Emmy Harbo, who scoring four goals on Oct. 31, 1998 at Louisiana State. Gustafson opened the onslaught just 5:46 into the match as she scored on a diving header off a pass from freshman Katie Ludwig. Junior forward Courtney Beirne (Westminster, Md.) scored the next two goals for her first-career multi-goal game to give the Terps a 3-0 lead at halftime. Jarynycz set up the second of Beirne's goals for the first of her three assists at the 21:51 mark. Ludwig started the scoreboard on a lob shot from seven yards out off a pass from Kim King just 4:59 into the second half. King came back for a goal of her own about five minutes later as she took a feed from Terri Greer to give the Terps a 5-0 lead.

Gustafson then took over, scoring the next three goals to give her a career-high four goals, equaling the school record. The junior scored on an unassisted goal from 25 yards out at the 63:35 mark. She came back for a pair of goals assisted by Jarynycz at the 71:34 and 78:08 marks. Those two assists gave Jarynycz the school record, breaking the school record of two set numerous times.

Ludwig finished the scoring at the 79:47 mark on an unassisted goal.

Overall, five different Terps set career highs in goals, assists or points: Gustafson - 4 goals, 8 points (goals equal school record); Ludwig - 2 goals, 5 points; Jarynycz - 3 assists, 3 points (assists sets school record); Beirne - 2 goals, 5 points; Kim King - 3 points.

In net, Riki-Ann Serrins was credited with a half shutout to give her 12.5 in her career to break the school record for shutouts, formerly held by Heather Rowe and Missy Price with 12. Serrins kept Maryland in the game with several point-blank saves throughout the game as Clemens outshout the Terps 16-1.

"Gustafson is a really good team," said head coach Shannon Higgins-Cirovski. "Our players never gave up and played hard against a tough ACC opponent. I'm happy that we never let down." The trend continued with the home team winning every game in the series that dates back to 1994. Clemens holds a 5-4 lead in the series, winning all of the matches at Riggs Field.

The Tribe’s Jordan Krieger scored her team-high 12th goal to give William & Mary the 1-0 victory. Krieger took a pass from Janet Sury, who stole the ball from a Maryland player and beat keeper Riki-Ann Serrins in a one-on-one situation at the 55:56 mark.

Maryland had several opportunities to score late in the game, including a shot by Audra Poulin with just 56 seconds left, but Tribe keeper Courtney Owen made her third save of the game to preserve the shutout.

The game marked the final home regular-season contest for four senior Terps: midfielder Terri Greer, midfielder Vita McKenna, forward Julie Nelson and Serrins. All four players were honored before the match during a ceremony.

The Terps pounced on the Terps right from the opening kickoff. Just 39 seconds into the game sophomore forward Kim Patrick scored when the ball rebounded off a defender’s foot and fell directly to Patrick at the four-yard line for an easy putaway. Just 2:46 later, Carolino scored again when junior midfielder Jena Kluegel delivered a corner kick that bent directly into the goal where it was caught by Maryland goalkeeper Riki-Ann Serrins but not before it crossed the goal line. Serrins finished with seven saves and six goals allowed on the day.

Just 1:42 after Kluegel’s goal UNC struck again as Kluegel served a perfect cross from the left wing that found the head of charging freshman striker Alyssa Ramsey in the box for an easy putaway. Kluegel earned her second assist of the game on that goal.

The loss was the worse for the Tar Heels in terms of goal margin since September 26, 1993 when Duke defeated Maryland 6-0.

The Terps’ senior keeper Riki-Ann Serrins made four saves in her final collegiate game.

Fellow seniors Terri Greer, Vita McKenna and Julie Nelson all started and battled hard in their final collegiate game.

The game started at 9:46 p.m., nearly two hours after the originally scheduled starting time of 8 p.m., because of two ACC quarterfinal matches that went to penalty kicks. No. 7 seed Florida State beat No. 2 seed Wake Forest (5-4 in penalty kicks after a 1-1 tie) and No. 5 Duke defeated No. 4 seed Virginia (4-3 in penalty kicks after a 0-0 tie). No. 3 seed North Carolina defeated No. 6 seed NC State, 5-1 in the first game of the quarterfinals. Maryland’s match with Clemson ended at 11:40 p.m. with just 55 fans in the Koskinen Stadium stands.

The Terps salvaged a scoreless draw despite giving up the first goal. Clemson outshot Maryland 17-2 and took 13 corner kicks to the Tar Heels two. Maryland head coach Shannon Higgins-Cirovski gave the Tigers credit, but was proud of her team’s effort.

“We battled all night long and gave everything we had,” said Higgins-Cirovski. “Clemson is a final four-type team. We didn’t get the shots off that we wanted to, but we played a lot better than the last Clemson game (a 1-0 loss on Oct. 13). We showed a lot of heart and played like a team doing everything we could to come from behind.”

Serrins made four saves in her final collegiate game.
