OPENING DRIVE

Setting The Stage
The Maryland football program looks to stay unbeaten at Capital One Field at Maryland Stadium in 2016 as it welcomes Minnesota to College Park for the first time in history Saturday, Oct. 15. The Terps and Golden Gophers are set for a noon kickoff on ESPNU.

Quick Hitters
The Maryland football team has totaled 187 points through its first five games, the most in program history to open a season. Additionally, Maryland has outscored its opponents 119-38 in the first half this season.

Maryland defeated Minnesota, 17-7, in the only meeting between the programs on Dec. 22, 1977, in Birmingham, Ala., to win the Hall of Fame Bowl. The Terps' George Scott had 77 yards and two touchdowns on the ground, while Charles White racked up 126 receiving yards. Head coach Jerry Claiborne pointed to Marion Barber, Jr.'s first quarter fumble as the turning point.

The Terps have totaled 102 points in their two home games this season, eclipsing the 50-point mark in each contest. It marks the first time Maryland has had 50 points in back-to-back home games since the 1951 Southern Conference Championship season.

Maryland continues to rank among the best protecting the ball, ranking first in the Big Ten and third nationally with just four turnovers in 2016. Not including quarterbacks, Maryland's ball carriers and receivers have totaled 219 touches without a fumble.

True freshman running back Lorenzo Harrison ranks second nationally among true freshmen with 72.4 rushing yards/game. He is currently on pace to break LaMont Jordan's freshman record of 689 rushing yards in a single-season, set in 1997.

BY THE NUMBERS: OFFENSE

True freshman Terrance Davis (DeMatha) lined up at guard against Penn State, making his first career start. Davis is the first true freshman to start on the offensive line since Moise Larose made a start against Syracuse on Nov. 9, 2013. Davis is also the cousin of Maryland freshman running back Lorenzo Harrison.

4

Sophomore running back Ty Johnson has displayed incredible big-play ability, exploding for four plays of more than 45 yards over the last two games. The Cumberland, Md., native had separate rushes of 56, 76 and 48 yards two weeks ago against Purdue, before breaking loose for a 66-yard touchdown reception at Penn State.

7

Senior quarterback Perry Hills scored a rushing touchdown in overtime at UCF to become the seventh Terrapin to score a rushing touchdown this season through only three games (six different players scored in the opener). It is a remarkable feat for the team considering Maryland last had seven players score a rushing TD in an entire season in 2002. That 2002 team would go on to score 32 rushing touchdowns. This year's team has 16 rushing touchdowns through five games.

9.1

While Maryland has been prone to spread the ball across its bevy of running backs, its top-two ball carriers, Lorenzo Harrison and Ty Johnson, have made the most of their carries by averaging 9.1 yards collectively. The freshman Harrison is averaging 8.2 yards/carry, while Johnson is averaging an astounding 10.4 yards/carry.

13

Sophomore D.J. Moore currently leads all Maryland receivers with a reception in 13 consecutive games dating back to Oct. 3, 2015. Moore leads all offensive players with 15 consecutive starts, and leads the team in receptions (17), receiving yards (239), yards-per-catch (17.2) and receiving touchdowns (2).

66

Senior quarterback Perry Hills completed the longest pass of his career against Penn State, a 66-yard strike to Ty Johnson. Hills found Johnson in open space, and the running back did the rest with a long scamper down the sideline. Hills' previous long came as a true freshman against Wake Forest in 2012 on a 63-yard pass to Stefon Diggs.

204

Sophomore Ty Johnson was spectacular against Purdue, posting a career-high 204 rushing yards on just seven carries, in addition to two touchdowns. Johnson's unbelievable 29.1 yards/carry were the most for a 200-yard rusher in FBS over the last 20 seasons (see table below). The 204 yards is also the single-game high in the Big Ten Conference this season.

Most Yards Per Rush
200-Yard Rushers in FBS Last 20 Seasons

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| 1. Ty Johnson, Maryland | 29.1 | 2016, Purdue |
| 2. Melvin Gordon III, Wisconsin | 24.0 | 2012, vs. Nebraska |
| 3. Charles Sims, Houston | 20.7 | 2011, at Tulane |
| 4. Shaun Wilson, Duke | 20.4 | 2014, Kansas |
| 5. Robert Griffin III, Baylor | 19.7 | 2008, Washington State |

344

Freshman running back Lorenzo Harrison has totaled 344 rushing yards through his first five games, and is currently on pace to smash LaMont Jordan's Maryland freshman record of 689 rushing yards set in 1997. For comparison's sake, Jordan had 294 rushing yards through his first five career games.

BY THE NUMBERS: DEFENSE/SPECIAL TEAMS

1

Head coach DJ Durkin has proclaimed numerous times that the best players will play special teams. That sentiment rang true against Penn State when star freshman running back Lorenzo Harrison broke through for his first career punt block. The Terrapins are one of just seven teams nationally with two blocked punts this season.

4

Junior WILL linebacker Shane Cockerille continues to pile up tackles for the Terrapin defense, ranking fourth in the Big Ten with 9.0 tackles/game. Cockerille was one tackle short of his career-high with 13 tackles at Penn State, including a pass breakup and a tackle for loss. This is Cockerille's first season playing defense for Maryland, having played both quarterback and fullback during his first three seasons in College Park.

5.5

Junior defensive lineman Jesse Aniebonam has taken full advantage of his first season as a full-time starter for the Terps, tying for the Big Ten lead in sacks (and fifth nationally) with Wisconsin's T.J. Watt with 5.5 sacks. He also ranks second in the Big Ten and seventh nationally with 1.7 tackles for loss/game. Aniebonam, who is the cousin of former great New York Giants pass rusher Osi Umenyiora, has a sack in every game this season.

9

The Maryland defense has held strong in the red zone this season, ranking ninth in the Big Ten conference in red zone defense. The Terrapins are holding opponents to points on just 67 percent (10-of-15) of their red zone chances. William Likely had one of the biggest defensive plays against Penn State, forcing and recovering a Saquon Barkley fumble at Maryland's own 15-yard line.

10

While the Maryland offense scampered for 400 rushing yards against Purdue, it was its defense that might have been even more impressive as it held the Boilermakers to just 10 rushing yards in the game. Prior to a Purdue 13-yard rush with less than three minutes to play, the Boilermakers had mustered -3 rushing yards in the game. The last time Maryland held an opponent under 25 rushing yards was Oct. 27, 2012, when Boston College managed just eight rushing yards.

17.5

The Terrapins' defensive special teams unit has been excellent this season, ranking second in the Big Ten in kickoff return defense (17.5 yards/KO) and third in punt return defense (4.5 yards/PR). Danny Sutton performed kickoff duties for the first time in his career against Penn State.

36

All-American return stalwart William Likely needs just 36 more punt return yards to reach 900 yards for his career. Likely would be just the second player in Maryland history to achieve the mark, joining legendary return-man Steve Suter (2001-04), who had 1,271 career punt return yards.

200

Maryland ranks eighth in the Big Ten allowing just 195.4 passing yards/g to opponents this season, having held teams under 200 yards passing in 3-of-5 games. The Terps have yet to allow a 300-yard passer in 2016 after giving up more than 300 yards passing five times in 2015.

A Likely Story

After three spectacular seasons in College Park, senior cornerback and return specialist (and sometimes WR/RB!) William Likely is in the midst of his final season at Maryland. He has done it all for the Terps, including becoming the only player in FBS to start on both offense and defense in the same game in 2015 and 2016. Likely opened the 2015 season with a bang, gobbling up a Big Ten record 233 punt return yards in the season-opener against Richmond before running back his second punt return for a touchdown in as many weeks against Bowling Green. Likely has the top-2 single-game kickoff return yardage marks in school history, including a 220-yard performance at #10 Iowa in 2015 that included a 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown.

Likely's Maryland records:

- Single-game punt return yards (233 vs. Richmond, 9/5/15) - also a Big Ten record
- Single-season interception return yards (170 - 2014)
- Single-season interceptions returned for TD (2 - 2014)
- Single-game kickoff return yards (228 vs. Michigan State, 11/15/14)
- Co-single-season yards per kick return (31.0, 2014)
- Co-longest kickoff return (100 yds vs. Stanford, 12/30/14, at Iowa 10/31/15)

DJ DURKIN

Head Coach

Bowling Green '01 • First Year at Maryland

DJ Durkin, one of the brightest young coaching minds in college football, was named the 36th head football coach in Maryland history on December 2, 2015.

Prior to arriving in College Park, Durkin served as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at the University of Michigan, leading a nationally-renowned defensive unit that ranked fourth in the country. Under Durkin, the Wolverines limited opponents to 17.2 points per game in 2015, in addition to shutting out three consecutive opponents – the longest such streak at Michigan in 35 years.

Durkin has also been an outstanding recruiter in his time as an assistant. At Florida, Durkin helped land four straight top-11 recruiting classes and was named Rivals.com's 2012 Recruiter of the Year as a result. In total, Durkin contributed to the impressive recruitment of nine five-star prospects on the defensive side of the ball during that stretch.

Durkin's immediate impact in Ann Arbor was also displayed in player development. Michigan had nine defensive All-Big Ten honorees, including a pair of first team defensive backs: Jourdan Lewis and Jabril Peppers. In addition, three Wolverines (Ryan Glasgow, Lewis and Peppers,) were named semifinalists for national defensive awards in 2015. The Wolverines improved defense was a major reason for the program's four-win improvement over last season and for the team ranking as high as ninth in the nation.

As the defensive coordinator at Florida from 2013-14, Durkin led the Gators to consecutive top-15 rankings in total defense with the 15th-best mark in the country in 2014 (329.0 ypg) and the eighth-best (314.2 ypg) in 2013.

Florida's 2014 team finished the year ranked in the top-10 in the nation in yards allowed per play (4.45), yards allowed per rush attempt (3.16) and yards allowed per pass attempt (5.9).

The group was highlighted by All-SEC first team selections Dante Fowler Jr., and defensive back Vernon Hargreaves, along with second-team all-conference honoree Antonio Morrison. Fowler was subsequently selected third overall in the 2015 NFL Draft by the Jacksonville Jaguars. His selection continued a stretch in which Gator defensive players were selected in the first round of three consecutive drafts.

In Durkin's first season as defensive coordinator, Florida finished first in the SEC and seventh in the country in pass defense (171.8 yards per game), sixth in first downs allowed (16.1 per game) and 15th in scoring defense (21.1 points per game), while allowing only 27 touchdowns, the sixth fewest in the nation in 2013.

Durkin's coaching paid dividends at the next level when defensive tackle Dominique Easley was drafted by the New England Patriots in the first round of the 2014 NFL Draft.

From 2010-2012, Durkin served as special team coordinator and linebackers coach at Florida and coached under current Atlanta Falcons head coach Dan Quinn. Once again, Durkin was a key contributor of a staff that helped produce an NFL first round pick when defensive tackle Shariff Floyd was taken in the first round of the 2012 NFL Draft.

As linebackers coach, Durkin tutored Jon Bostic, who finished his career as a second-team All-SEC selection and was drafted in the second round of the NFL Draft by the Chicago Bears in 2013.

Durkin's coaching on special teams helped produce punter Chas Henry, the winner of the Ray Guy Award in 2011, and kicker Caleb Sturgis, a two-time finalist for the Lou Groza Award who now plays for the Philadelphia Eagles.

Under Durkin's tutelage, Stanford's defensive ends helped the Cardinal rank 11th nationally in sacks per game in 2007 and 2009.

At Stanford, Durkin helped the Cardinal bring in their highest ranked recruiting class in eight years in 2009.

As a graduate assistant at Notre Dame from 2003-04, Durkin worked primarily with defensive ends and helped develop Notre Dame all-time sack leader, All-Pro NFL defensive end and two-time Super Bowl champion Justin Tuck.

As a player, Durkin starred at Bowling Green as a starter at defensive end and outside linebacker from 1997-2000. He led the team in sacks in 1998 and served as a team captain for two seasons. Durkin was honored with numerous team awards including the Ken Schoeni Award for character and toughness, the Carlos Jackson Award personifying the values of a student-athlete and the Leadership Award.

Durkin played under Gary Blackney at Bowling Green. Blackney was Maryland's defensive coordinator from 2001-05.

He earned his bachelor's degree in business marketing from Bowling Green in 2001 and his master's degree in educational administration and supervision in 2004.

A native of Youngstown, Ohio, Durkin and his wife Sarah have one daughter, Abigail, and one son, Luke.

GAME 1 RECAP: HOWARD

MARYLAND OPENS 2016 WITH ROUT OF HOWARD

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - DJ Durkin enjoyed a lopsided victory in his debut as Maryland's coach, overseeing a dominant performance that carried the Terrapins past Howard 52-13 on Saturday.

Perry Hills went 14 for 19 for 126 yards, Trey Edmunds scored two first-quarter touchdowns and Maryland (1-0) allowed only 53 first-half yards in taking a 35-0 lead.

Durkin left his job as Michigan's defensive coordinator in December to guide a team that went 3-9 in 2015. Walking on the sideline in a black baseball cap, an untucked red polo shirt and long black pants, the 37-year-old coach seemed quite satisfied with the blowout.

His most vivid memory occurred long after the final whistle.

"In the locker room with the guys, singing the fight song," Durkin said. "The look on their faces, that's what you do it for. That's what it's all about."

Howard (0-1) won only one game last year while being outscored 408-169, so this game wasn't necessarily an indication of the Terrapins' improvement under Durkin. That answer may not come until Maryland begins Big Ten play next month.

Still, there were plenty of positives for the Terrapins against the neighboring Bison of the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference.

"Great day for our program," Durkin said. "A great win for us, a great way to start."

Durkin got this job because of his defensive knowledge, and the Terrapins were exceptionally stingy. Howard went three-and-out on its first five possessions and didn't get into the end zone until Maryland's reserves entered in the fourth quarter.

"Overall, the guys came out with a slow start. A lot of mistakes from the quarterbacks," coach Gary Harrell said. "Defensively, we missed tackles."

Hills, in contrast, produced touchdowns on his first four drives. After finishing with a minus-18 turnover differential last year, the Terrapins did not give the ball away.

Freshman backup quarterback Tyrrell Pigrome entered in the third quarter. He threw for 60 yards, and ran for 53 yards and a TD.

Maryland also got a touchdown from its special teams: Edmunds took a blocked punt 13 yards into the end zone for a 21-0 lead.

Senior running back Trey Edmunds scored a rushing touchdown and returned a blocked punt for touchdown in his Maryland debut.

MARYLAND HANDLES FIU, 41-14

MIAMI (AP) — A combination of execution and fun has helped Maryland open the season with two convincing wins.

But the combination of Perry Hills to DJ Moore hasn't hurt either.

Hills threw for three touchdowns, two to Moore, to lead Maryland to a 41-14 win over Florida International on Friday night.

Hills completed 13-of-18 passes for 210 yards in three quarters. He connected with Moore for a 45-yard touchdown pass and Derrick Hayward for a 9-yard score in the second quarter to give Maryland a 31-7 advantage at halftime. Lorenzo Harrison scored on a 40-yard run for the Terrapins' fourth touchdown of the first half.

"We're doing an unbelievable job of executing," Hills said. "We all came out here and had a good time. That's the final point - to come out here and have fun."

Moore finished with six receptions and 147 yards for Maryland (2-0).

First-year Maryland head coach DJ Durkin rested Hills after his third touchdown pass — a 40-yard catch and run by Moore with 2:21 remaining in the third quarter.

"Just pleased with the way we came out and played," Durkin said. "I thought our guys prepared really well, traveled really well. That was a big thing for us coming and how we were going to go through it as a team.

"It's not easy getting road wins in college football. The way our guys responded, I'm really excited for them."

The Terrapins never trailed after taking a 10-0 lead on Adam Greene's 23-yard field andJermaine Carter, Jr.'s 15-yard interception return in the first quarter.

Carter's interception was the third interception return for FIU quarterback Alex McGough.

Alex Gardner rushed for 109 yards and scored on a four-yard run in the second quarter for the Panthers (0-2).

The Terrapins are now 5-0 in their all-time series against the Panthers.

Sophomore wide receiver D.J. Moore caught six passes for a career-high 147 yards and two touchdowns vs. FIU.

GAME 3 RECAP: UCF

TERPS TAKE DOWN UCF IN 2OT THRILLER

ORLANDO, Fla. -- Maryland freshman quarterback Tyrrell Pigrome replaced starter Perry Hills and on his only play of the game raced 24 yards for the game-winning score in a 30-24 double-overtime win for the Terrapins over UCF on Saturday night.

"I'm just so proud of our guys," head coach DJ Durkin said. "There were so many times when they had to dig deep. The offense had to pick up the defense and the defense had to pick up the offense, special teams and everything. There was a lot of swings (of momentum) in that game. I think more than anything, when you look at our team we held strong through all of that, to me that's a great sign for us. To me that's not been indicative of what we have done. So that's our first sign of adversity and how we were going to respond and we responded the right way."

UCF freshman quarterback McKenzie Milton, making his first career start, committed his sixth fumble of the night and fourth turnover to begin the second overtime, setting the stage for Pigrome's heroics.

The Knights tied the game early in the fourth quarter on a 42-yard field goal byMatthew Wright with 12:04 remaining. Neither offense was able to score again in regulation.

Milton started in place of UCF senior Justin Holman, who was injured last week at Michigan.

After struggling early in the first half, Hills and the Maryland offense settled down and began to capitalize on big plays. Hills 51-yard completion to receiverTeldrick Morgan helped set up Adam Greene's 33-yard field as time expired in the second quarter to give the Terps a 10-7 edge at halftime.

The Knights held a 7-0 lead late in the first quarter when Milton found running back Dontravious Wilson for a four-yard touchdown late in the second quarter. But Milton became erratic in the second quarter, committing two of his three first-half turnovers that allowed Maryland to get back into the game.

NOTE: The game marked just the second double overtime game in Maryland history. Maryland is 6-3 all-time in overtime games.

Senior cornerback William Likely had a career-high 14 tackles, including 2.0 TFL, against UCF.

GAME 4 RECAP: PURDUE

Unbeaten Terps Rout Purdue, 50-7, in B1G Opener

COLLEGE PARK (AP) — Ty Johnson ran for 204 yards on seven carries, and unbeaten Maryland used a strong defensive performance to breeze past Purdue 50-7 Saturday and provide first-year coach DJ Durkin a victory in his first Big Ten game.

The Terrapins (4-0, 1-0) scored four touchdowns and amassed 293 yards in taking a 29-0 halftime lead. Maryland finished with 400 yards rushing and outgained the Boilermakers 496-205 overall.

Purdue (2-2, 0-1) had no answer for the no-huddle offense that has scored a school-record 173 points over its first four games.

Taking over at Maryland after serving as Michigan's defensive coordinator in 2015, Durkin has the Terrapins operating at a high level on both sides of the ball.

Perry Hills threw two touchdown passes to Teldrick Morgan and ran for an 11-yard score. Johnson peeled off a 76-yard run and scored on carries of 8 and 48 yards, and Lorenzo Harrison chipped in with a 62-yard touchdown sprint.

The defense sacked David Blough six times. The Boilermakers were ranked second in the nation in third-down conversions (59 percent), but in this game they went 6 for 20.

It was 36-0 before Purdue finally scored, on a 4-yard touchdown pass from Blough to Cole Herdman with 13:30 remaining.

Coming off two straight 300-yard games, Blough was limited to 46 yards passing before halftime and finished 18 for 41 for 132 yards.

The Boilermakers were guilty of a variety of ill-timed penalties, poor tackling and shoddy blocking by the offensive line.

Even when the Terrapins made mistakes of their own, Purdue couldn't capitalize. Maryland hadn't committed a turnover all year until Hill threw an interception on the opening series. The Terrapins subsequently jumped offside on third down, but Purdue's J.D. Dellinger was wide right on a 35-yard field goal try.

Maryland promptly moved 80 yards in six plays, then fooled the Boilermakers with an unbalanced formation on the 2-point conversion.

On Purdue's next series, an illegal formation wiped out a successful third-down play and forced a punt. Not long after that, Harrison burst up the middle on his 62-yard run.

Johnson's first touchdown made it 22-0.

Desperate for a spark, Purdue coach Darrell Hazell opted to for it on a fourth down from the Boilermakers 32. They made it, but it merely delayed Maryland's next touchdown.

Sophomore running back Ty Johnson carried seven times for a career-high 204 yards, averaging 29.1 yards/rush. He also finished with two touchdowns.

GAME 5 RECAP: PENN STATE

TERPS COME UP SHORT AT PENN STATE

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. -- Freshman Lorenzo Harrison racked up 76 yards on just six carries, but Penn State beat Maryland 38-14 on Saturday.

Penn State quarterback Trace McSorley accounted for 233 total yards, throwing for 152 and rushing for 81 as the Nittany Lions (4-2, 2-1 Big Ten) had a season-high 524 total yards and snapped Maryland's five game win streak.

Penn State limited Maryland (4-1, 1-1) to 270 total yards, including 170 on the ground. The Terps came in averaging 300 rushing yards per game in victories over Howard, Florida International, Central Florida and Purdue.

Maryland was forced to play without veteran quarterback Perry Hills during the second half; Hills was injured on a second-quarter keeper deep in Penn State territory.

Penn State penalties and a Saquon Barkley fumble enabled the Terps to stay within striking distance until McSorley hooked up with DeAndre Thompkins on a 70-yard scoring pass late in the third quarter to make it 31-14. Freshman Miles Sanders added a 25-yard scoring run late in the game.
